Featured Speaker : McKay Jenkins, Ph.D.

McKay Jenkins has been writing about people and the natural world for 25 years. He is the author of What's Gotten Into Us: Staying Healthy in a Toxic World, which chronicles his investigation into the myriad synthetic chemicals we encounter in our daily lives, and the growing body of evidence about the harm these chemicals do to our bodies and the environment.

Jenkins' other books include: Bloody Falls of the Coppermine: Madness and Murder in the Arctic Barren Lands, The Last Ridge: The Epic Story of the U.S. Army's 10th Mountain Division and the Assault on Hitler's Europe, The White Death: Tragedy and Heroism in an Avalanche Zone, and The South in Black and White: Race, Sex, and Literature in the 1940s.

Jenkins is the Cornelius A. Tilghman Professor of English and director of the journalism program at the University of Delaware.

The evening will include a buffet-style dinner and a cash bar, and will also include:

- Silent Auction, benefitting the DE AWRA Student Chapter (Cash or checks only)
